

Survey – What do you want the new government to do? – CLOSED

Thank you for the interest in participating in the survey. This survey is now closed and the results are analysed here. Kindly join our email list to stay informed on future surveys, opinion pieces and our weekly analysis.

With a new government coming at the centre, the Indian automotive industry sees a ray of light. What should the new government do to help the market recover? Kindly answer the below survey to help us understand the top priorities for the new government.

Caveat: Answer the survey only if you are an industry participant or have an interest in the Indian automotive industry or market. Also, if you have three minutes to spare.

Note: Find the small SUBMIT button just below the IAR logo at the bottom of the survey

Loading...